No hidden fees. No bait and switch.

If your loved one is under hospice care, we guarantee to honor the price we quote if our prices increase for any reason.

aCremation is special because our caring professionals are not incentivized to up-sell services or merchandise like many funeral homes or mortuaries. The measurement of their success is how well they assist families through this difficult time.

Ken Paxton - Attorney General of Texas

Do you need help with funeral expenses for a loved one? You may be eligible for compensation to help cover these costs. Here's what you need to know Losing a loved one is difficult, and we're here to help. The Crime Victims' Compensation (CVC) Program may help pay for funeral and burial expenses.

Examples of costs that may be covered are:

- Professional services for funerals or burials, including flowers, caskets, urns, and grave markers
- Transportation of the deceased if the distance is more than 50 miles one way
